Beer festival - Ste Marie Cappel

24 and 25th September 2011
No flat warm beer here. FIBA brings together a host of amateur and enthusiastic brewers in a small village near Cassel, where you can immerse yourself in the welcoming festive atmosphere and sample local and traditionally brewed beers. Sales of brewing products from around the world, plaits of hops and lots more..., with competitions for the best craft beers. And who knows, you might take home with you a good beer recipe which will become all the rage in your British pubs. Farewell, flat warm beer? Book your package in Flanders

Homage to Wilfred Owen - Opening of the Maison Forestière- Ors

Opening 1st October 2011
British visitors will come to pay tribute to Wilfred Owen, the British poet and soldier killed in the battle here in 1918. The mayor and the Wilfred Owen Society have set up an artistic project for the Forestry Commission house where the poet spent his last days. It was here that he wrote his final letter to his mother. The project initiated under the Fondation de France new patrons scheme highlights the contemporary and universal nature of Wilfred Owen's work. Find out more
