

Hi Véronique, it's Nicole

Nicole's inspired breaks...

This spring and summer, le Nord remembers.... heroes of both world wars. In Dunkerque, the 70th anniversary of operation Dynamo will pay homage to British soldiers. The heroes of the great war hold a place of honour in Fromelles where 250 soldiers are finally buried in the cemetery 94 years later.

On a more lighthearted side, summer time is also the beginning of the festive season with fairs, concerts, traditional festivals and local markets.

So don't hesitate to contact me if you need more information to prepare your stay in Nord-Pas de Calais.

Hero of the great war: remembering in Fromelles

More than 90 years after the Battle, the Fromelles cemetery will be officially opened on the 19th of July 2010.

The bodies of British and Australian soldiers who died during the Battle of Fromelles in 1916 were recovered from the battlefield by the Germans and 250 were buried in six communal graves near Pheasant Wood on the outskirts of the northern French village of Fromelles. This day also marks the 94th anniversary of the Battle of Fromelles and will see the reinterment of the last of the 250 soldiers who had lain undiscovered at Pheasant Wood since 1916.
